

FBC News

Local grown exhibits in Australia

15:19 Tue Sep 13, 2016

Taken from/By: Google

Report by: Praneeta Prakash

Locally grown, herbal remedies from Fiji are on exhibition in Australia.

FRIEND Fiji Director, Sashi Kiran says Fine Food Australia is the leading trade exhibition for the foodservice, hospitality and retail industries and is a show which attracts over 1,000 exhibitors from Australia and the world.

Turmeric, Layalaya, Virgin Coconut Oil and Sea Salt is being featured at the exhibition.

Kiran adds OXFAM Australia continues to stock their signature chutneys and jams.

She says these health foods will now be available to the world through participation at Fine Foods in Melbourne.

The exhibition ends tomorrow.

Share Our Story