WITH their range of homemade jams already creating a buzz in the community, the Foundation for Rural Integrated Enterprises and Development is hopeful the newest range of herbal teas will be a hit among Fijians.

FRIEND Fiji director Sashi Kiran said locals could enjoy the Fiji Cha products through the lemon grass, cinnamon, star apple, rosella, layalaya tea with cinnamon, tulsi and yaqona flavours.

"We work with skills and resources of our local communities to develop products that can provide sustainable sources of incomes for families," Ms Kiran said.

"The first of four teas were launched in early 2013 and three more were released last year. All our teas are packed in tea bags for a perfect cup of drink whenever one wishes."

According to Ms Kiran, the teas are also healthy as they are made from all natural ingredients.
